Money and Business.

The recent financial upheaval in New York, already makes itself felt throughout the country. The disturbance at the monotary heart extends to all the extremities. Suspensions of banks, fallures of business men, scarcity of money, and a rapid fall in the prices of produce, are the leading features of the daily news. As yet, the West bears up well under the shock. Indeed it has come at a fortunate period of the year for us; since our abundant crops have hardly begun to go forward. But, nevertheless, the stringency money matters seriously embara-see all sorts pant for it yesterias in charge. But constant of the second of all who belong to the republishings can hardly last long. The country is full few party to a share in its honors and emotion of wealth. The earth has yielded abundantly, and our surplus is needed at the Bast, and on the other side of the Atlantic. It will go there, though our farmers must not expect the high prices of past years. They must be content to portion of endorsing Gov. Walker's military deposition in Kanaa. aell at more moderate figures. There is even despoti∘m in Kansas.

Alexander W. Randall has made his mark in now a good export demand for flour and grain, the political history of Wisconsin, and is entitled and at present rates breadstuffs can be profit to more credit than any other one individual, for shipped to Europe. If this continues, as it will do, at the current prices, a very few weeks will bring about a vast improvement in money creat caution in business affairs; to contract no new debts: to retrench all unneccessory expenditures; to husband all our resources; and to get matters into such shape that we can quietly and confidently await the better times which will surely and soon come round again.

A large portion of the contraction has been this week on the discount line, as the call loans were mostly unavailable. It is sencely to be expected that our mercantile community can stand much loager such a sudden reduction of bank loans without a large number of failures. Selippreservation may be a very good thing in a bank mut it may be carried too far and the screws turned so hard that what is gained in safety may be flost in assets. The great error in this case is that the contraction in loans which should have been a catched over two months has been condensed last night after be had retired to bed, which circumstance shows that the robber was not only familiar with the promises, but knew how and where to find the implements for entering them. MILWAUKEE: PRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 11. REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

TOR GOVERNOR. ALEXANDER W. BANDALL, Of Minaukee. FOR LIEUT, GOVERNOE, CARL SCHURZ, of Jefferson.

POR ERCRETARY OF STATE, JOHN L. V. THOMAS, of Mock. FOR STATE TREASURES, SAMUEL B. HASTINGS, of La Crosses

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL, MORTIMER M. JACKSON, of Iowa. FOR BANK COMPTECLLER, JOHN P. McGREGOR, of Columbia.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, JOHN G. MCMYNN, OF RRCine. FOR STATE PRISON COMMISSIONER, EDWARD M. RICGRAW, of Shebbygan.

Lamentations of the News, While the entire Republican press of the State respond with the atmost cordishity to the proceedings of our State Convention, and our ticket is received, in all quarters, with a degree of satisinction and enthusiasm, which is, in itself, a guarantee of success, it is not to be defied that our Barstow cotemporaries entertain very different sentiments. They, at least, are grievously dissatisfied with the ticket, and are just now occupying much of their valuable time and space in trying to convince the Republican Convention that they ought to have made very different sele tions. The News is especially exercised on the subject, and cannot sufficiently lament the perverse blindness of the Republicans in nominaing their weakest instead of their strongest men.

Thus, in yesterday's paper, it is persuaded that the selection of Mr. RANDALL "will demoralize the Republican party;" holds that Mr. HOLTON ought to have had the nomination, and is grieved to think that "the old Whig element" feels insulted by the taking up of Democrats for the best offices. Of course, had it been left to the News, all these errors would have been avoided, and the right men nominated. As it is, we can only isment that the Postmaster was not on hand to regulate our Convention, as he did the Baretow conclave. No doubt he would have given us just the ticket to win, and instead of pouring out daily lamentations, as he now does, over the mistaken policy and ill-judged nominations of the Republicane, he would have praised our candidates to the skies, and given them his cordial endorsement and support.

How it takes at the South.

The letter of President BUCHANAN to the forty Connecticut clergymen, justilying the Border Rufflan outrages in Kansas, declaring his determination to enforce the bogus Missouri laws, and own city? avowing the startling doctrine that the U.S. Constitution carries slavery with it, over and iuto every toot of Territo y, that may be acquired by the Republic, is hailed with intense delight by the entire South. We copy, as evidence of the pervading feeling, the following dispatch from

Press:

Washington, Sept. 3.

I cannot describe the sensation created here by the publication, this morning, of Mr. Buchanan's reply to the memorial of Professor Sillinan and certain Doctors of Divinity, "Electors of the State of Connecticut." It sounds the death-knell of Southern extremities. Southern gentlement are load in praise of the straight-forward and honest course of the President. If this letter were published a month ago, say they, there would not, have been any opposition at the South; now it theory and invigorates the National Democracy, and is that on which it goes into the canwas in the States still to elect members of Coppless with an assured and brilliant. bers of Congress with an assured and brilliant

Assuredly the South have every reason to be satisfied with this extraordinary letter. It contration throughout, and, was in return, very lawer edge, suddenly with one wild laughling their right to take their slaves into any Territory belonging to the U.S., and of course they cannot thereafter be deprived of this "property," unless compensated therefor. Thus at last, under the DRED SCOTT decision and Mr. BUCHANAN'S souri Compromise : has boldly invaded Territory long since consecrated to FREEDOM, and, with the aid and protection of the Federal Government, confidently hopes to make good its toothold on hitherto Free Soil. No wonder that Mr. Bu-CHANAN's letter has disarmed all opposition at the South, and encouraged "the National Demorracy," the champions of slavery, to fresh efforts and further concessions in behalf of the " neculiar institution."

Toning Down an Obnexious Senti-

Some weeks ago the News, in the course of a violent tirade against the Republicans for submitting to the people the question of equal suffrage, and with the charitable hope of rousing prejudice and antipathy against the colored people, said down this humane maxim: "The attempt to elevate a black and debased even cannibal-which is being made by the Republican party of Wisconsin, is in striking opposition to common sense and christian duty. We commented on this extraordinary declara-

while conceding it to be a legitimate deduction from the Dred Scott decision and a genuine sample of Sham Democracy, we expressed the belief that it would take both time and labor to commend such doctrines to the hearts and consciences of the people of the Free States. The News made no response, adhering to its position. The sentiment, however, has elicited such general comment from the Republican press of the Sixte, and is everywhere denounced with so much deserved severity, that the News at length " rises to explain." Hear it:

"STILL HARPING UPON MY DAUGHTER."-The "STIL HARDING GFON MY DAUGHTER."—The following extract from an editorial that appeared in the News, probably a month ago, has frequently appeared in the opposition papers in this city:

"The attempt to elevate a black and debased race—a race that at home is barbarist, and even cannibal—which is being made by the Republican party in Wisconsin, is in atriking opposition to common sense and Christian duty."

Stunding disconnected from the context, this does seem to contain a rather harsh sentiment.

does seem to contain a rather harsh sentiment. does seem to contain a rather harm sentiment. But not so at all when read in the connection we placed it, and when allowed the meaning we designed it to convey: "The attempt to elevate," &c., the negro to an equality of chizenship with the men, "which is being made by the Regablican party of Wisconsin, is in striking or position to common sensoand chiratian dut."

The explanation is a very lame one. Even the interpolation does not uselp the matter. But we are glad to see that the News has the grace to feel ashamed of its own sentiments, although they square precisely with the new standard of true deserve freedom for himself. democracy, "common sense and Christian duty," set up by the U. S. Supreme Court and President BUCHANAN.

Is Cross a Know-Norming ?-The News make, "is Randall a Know-Nothing," and raplies to its but great tor com. The Watertown Democrat of own query, "we do not know that he is;" but yesterday says: thereupon proceeds to give an imaginary conversation between two K. The American, which sets itself up as especialy opposed to all sorts of official corruption, volunteers, nevertheless, as an apologist for the recent-sale of the Military Reserve at Fort Spelling It save: The Fort Snelling Swindle, us it has been terrued by many papers, proves to be a good op-eration for the country. We are gratified, say a cotemporary, to be confirmed in our view of the transaction by our correspondent at St. Paul, who is an unbiasacc judge. This correspondent itsists that it was right and proper to dispose of the land, at private sele, to certain party favorites, for about onetenth of its value, because, if offered at public sale, there would have been a combination among "speculators" to get it at $1,25 per acre. This is palpably absurd. Had such a combination been effected, the sale could have been postponed. Uncle Sam is not so "hard up," that he has to sacrifice his real estate at forced sale. On the contrary his coffers are overflowing with noncy, notwithstanding the extravagant expenditure of the last four years. The lame excuse, therefore, that the Reserve was disposed of at private sale, to boulk "the speculators," will deenive nobody. As to the value of the land which Messra, STEELE & Company purchased for eleven dollars an acre, a St. Anthony correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post, thus speaks:

When I say that there are hundreds of persons the foot of civilized man bad scarcely trod, and in this territory who would have given two or three hundred dollars per acre therefor, I state what I do know, and whereof I can affirm. At this seemingly exorbitant price, it would have been a grand speculation. As stated by you, it cevers one of the most admirable town raises of the Indians wigwan only, entired up from America, so of threed at the configuracy of the state o deversions of the most admirable town fates of america, so situated at the confluence of two great rivers, as to command and control the trade and commerce of a still greater stretch of country than any other point in Minnesota. The News, however, refers to a counter statement, showing that many of the signers of the Very like; and all of them, we doubt not, will vote the Republican ticket this fall. The Germans are rapidly cutting loose from pro-slavery of Francou. Speaking of "German bolts," what does the News think of the sample in our nomination:

AN APOLOGY FOR MAYOR CROSS.-The LB Crosse Democrat, in its comments upon its party ticket, thus tries to soften down the ugly fact that Mr. Gross is a zealous adherent of the Baretow faction in this State, and was the favorite Col. Forner's new paper, the Philadelphia candidate of "the Forty" for the Guburnatorial nomination :

Our opponents will and do accuse him of being the Barstow candidate, and we know of many Democrats who hesitate to any they will support him, because he is thus accused. In common with the majority of the party in this State, two years ago Mr. Cross supported Bärstow. He was interested in the contest by his sympathy for the Democrats who were so bitterly assailed by the opposition, and doubtless by his warmth rendered himself somewhat hable to the charge of being a Barstow man. But against him there is not urged a single act that connects him with the official misconduct for which the administration of Barstow has been condemned.

Totten, the Superintendent of the Panama Railroad, it is race-a race that at home a barbarian and said, has set on took a project for cutting the much talked of "Ship Canal" across the Isthmus. He has located the route, ronking use of the Chagres River as far up as Cruces, and then cutting and locking serves, to come out in Panama tion the day after it appeared in the News, and Bay. He has estimated that the greatest eleva tion to be overcome is two hundred feet above the level of the Affantic, and the result of his and the consolidation of the Peninsula under calculation as to crist, is less than any other route proposed. He bas induced the Navy Department to order a party of officers from the Wabash, to make a prelimitary survey of the proposed route, and report uprin it at once.

to-day, I hastened hither, and reached here this morning, in time to witness them. The grounds upon which the buildings are located, is a beautiful bluff, just south of the central pordon of the town, and overlooking the entire City and a wide stretch of the Mississippi, together with a wide range of country on the other shore, including the lovely town of Prescott, in Wisconsin. A more commanding and at the same time central location, could not have been selected in the vicinity of Haytings. The grounds—the acres where the series in the threaten against the city government have become very atomsing. As the Aldermen had to frame such ordinances, and make such other regulations as were necessary, they have been in session not less than a dozen times since the army has been brought against Lawrence, and to-day, I hastened hither, and reached here this drous prosperity of this new Territory.

A ROYAL MARRIAGE.-The Dusseldorf Gazette A ROYAL MARRIAGE.—The Dusseldorf Gazette announces that his Majesty King Pedro V. of Portugal has demanded in marriage the hand of Princess Steffane of Hohonzollern Sigmaringen, whose father resides at Dusseldorf, a general in the service of Prussia. The betrothal is to take place in the course of this autumn, but the wedding will not be celebrated until next year.—Prince Albert gets the credit of having negotiated this marriage, and the Liberals of Spain are sorely yeared, and accuse the Prince Consort of having, perhaps designedly, spelled a very pretty plot for the union of the royal houses of Spain and Portugal, the abdication of Queen Isabella, and the consolidation of the Peninsula under

A LETTER OF CARDIT.—Some years ago a distinguished lawyor and joker, living at Mource, was applied to by a fast young men, with whom he had acased acquainance, for a letter of introduction, upon the strength of which he might buy a bil of groce-lies in Detroit, upon credit. The lawyor undertook to remonstrate, but the young man in sisted, saying "Squine write just what you have a mind only just say that you know ree mid you.

sisted, saying "Squite write just what you have a mind' only just say that you know me, and you gness I'm all right." Thinking it to be the readiest mode of rioding himself of a pestering annoyance, he sat down and wrote:

To tchem it may concern:

This may certify, that I know A B who visite Detroit to purchase goods, and that I consider him as likely a young man as I am acquired with form one of his habits and character. Signed, Signed, The bearer was perfectly satisfied.

The bearer was partectly satisfied.

Neck Broker in Kiesian.—On Tuesday night, a girt of 17, residing in Bridegate, Glasgow, man of Catharine Burt, was brought to the Central Police Office, having, according to the report given, had her neck fractured in a struggle arising from a young man having attempted to kies her in her own closet. No extra violence, it was said, had been used. The injury appears to be partial dislocation of one of the vertebras of the neck, causing great difficulty in respiration and swallowing, presumed to be from pressure on the respiratory nerve. She now lies in a dangerous state.—North British Mail.
